

England squads revealed for EU Nations Junior Men's and Women's tournaments

Swim England has announced the squads which will compete at the rearranged 2020 EU Nations Junior Men's and Women's Water Polo Tournament.

England's women will be in action in Brno, Czech Republic from Friday 8 to Saturday 10 October.

The junior men's team compete in the competition from Friday 29 to Saturday 31 October.

Austria, hosts Czech Republic, Lithuania, South Africa and Slovakia will be England's opponents in the women's tournament. They open up their campaign with matches against Slovakia and Lithuania on 8 October before taking on Czech Republic and South Africa the following day. A clash with Austria on the final day of the competition completes the programme for the team.

Huge honour

The full details for the junior men's event has yet to be published.

Twelve of the women's squad will be representing England for the first time, while the whole of the junior men's team are set to make their first appearance for their country.

Toby King, chair of the Swim England Water Polo Leadership Group, said: "Congratulations to everyone who has been selected. Being picked to represent your country is a huge honour and I know everyone will be out to perform to the very best of their ability and make us proud. Good luck to both teams. We look forward to cheering them on and hope they enjoy the experience of competing on the international stage."
